.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a Writ of Mandamus or a Writ, order or direction, declaring the action of the Respondents in not announcing the results of the petitioner for the Teachers' Training Certificate Examination conducted in the month of May, 1998 as arbitrary, illegal, unjust, discriminatory and violative of the Fundamental Rights guaranteed U/Articles 14, 16 and 21 of the Constitution of India besides violative of Art.41 of the Constitution of India and consequently direct the Respondents to publish the results of the petitioner for T.T.C. Examination conducted in the month of May, 1998.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR. K.RAM REDDY

Counsel for Respondents 1 and 2: GOVERNMENT PLEADER FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

Counsel for Respondents 3 to 7: GOVERNMENT PLEADER FOR SCHOOL EDUCATION

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

The petitioner appeared for Teachers' Training Certificate Examination (T.T.C.) conducted in May, 1998. But, the results were not declared. In the meanwhile, the Government announced recruitment of teachers by District Selection Committee and after written examination, interviews were being held on 22-6-1998. As per the rules, the candidates for D.S.C have to produce necessary marks memo and pass certificate on the date of interview. Therefore, he filed the present Writ Petition.

This Court, while admitting the Writ Petition on 19-6-1998, passed interim orders in W.P.M.P.No.20274 of 1998 as under:

"Interim direction to allow the petitioner to appear for the interview for the post of Secondary Grade Teacher without insisting on the production of TTC Certificate. But the result of the petitioner shall not be announced."

In view of the interim orders, nothing survives in the Writ Petition and therefore, the Writ Petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
